

PROPOSED ORDER

THIS MATTER having come before the Court regarding the settlement agreement in Case No. 22-1-04242-3, as documented under Defendant's Proposed Instructions filed July 30, 2025, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

1. Non-Negotiability – The settlement agreement entered in this matter shall remain binding in its entirety and shall not be reopened, renegotiated, amended, or otherwise altered except by express written agreement of all parties to the original settlement and with the approval of this Court.
2. No Supersession by Other Actions – No agreement, settlement, judgment, or order entered in any other action or proceeding — whether involving the same or different parties — shall supersede, modify, replace, diminish, or otherwise affect the terms of the settlement agreement in this matter.
3. Independent Enforcement – The settlement agreement for Case No. 22-1-04242-3 shall be enforced independently and in full, regardless of the existence of other legal proceedings or agreements involving overlapping issues or facts.
4. Settlement Amount and Disbursement – The settlement agreement in this matter is in the amount of One Hundred Trillion U.S. Dollars (USD $100,000,000,000,000), representing compensation for violations of privacy laws and damages to the Plaintiff's body. Said funds shall be deposited into a Swiss bank account established in the defendant's name, Shane Jonathan Lozenich, in accordance with the terms of the settlement agreement (defendant's proposed instructions filed July 30th, 2025)

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 12 day of August, 2025.
